DEAR SIR: The existence of an "Executive Committee" at this place is doubtless known to you; and as a law abiding citizen of this city, I feel it to be my duty to state certain facts to the world, with reference to said Committee, and ask a place in your columns for the publication of them, as our litte paper here, and in fact every paper in this portion of the State, is either in league or fear of their vigilance and tyranny.

This morning four of our most prominent men, to-wit: John J. Early, D'Witt Lucian, Jerome Baker, and Col. J. Alfonso Crockett, were found hung to as many trees in The classes of young ladies in Botany, the suburbs of our city. Intense excitement exists, and many of our citizens are abiding citizens, who dare to raise their hands against these midnight assassins.

Another remarkable feature is this, evey one of these men were members of the 'American party." Is it a proscription?-Col. Crockett and Mr. Early leave interesting families to deplore their loss, while the death of all has east a gloom over this community, from which it will not shortly
